

Contents

Acknowledgments	vii
Introduction	1
Part I: Leadership & Governance to Nurture Innovation and Growth	7
1: Are the Playbooks of GE and Many Large Companies Obsolete?	9
The dated leadership and culture in many U.S. companies
2: Greed Over Growth	41
How CEOs, leadership teams and boards are fleeing many U.S. companies
3: Mediocre CEOs, Leadership Teams and General Managers	63
Challenge the status quo with knowledgeable mavericks
4: Many Board Directors are CEO Puppets	103
Let's get practical about director qualifications
Part II: Core Values and Mindsets Vital for Innovation and Growth	137
5. Comparing U.S., German and Japanese Management Practices	139
Why many U.S. companies are losing market positions
6. Entrepreneurship in Bureaucratic Organizations	171
Why many large companies can't grow the top line
7. Companies Where Empowerment is Not a Buzzword	199
What great innovation and growth companies have in common
8. Mandatory Creative Destruction and Cannibalization	229
Obsolete your current solutions before competitors do
Part III: Adapt to Accelerate Innovation and Growth	267
9. How Many Smart Followers Leapfrog Pioneers	269
Why many Pioneers have arrows in their backs
10. How Digital Commerce Disrupts Every Business	299
Everyone can learn from fast fashion retailing
11. Thinking Small to Win Big	327
How laser-focused target-market segmentation drives everything
12. Lockheed's Skunk Works®	361
75 Years of Breakthrough Innovation

Part IV: Improving Your Organization's Capabilities to Learn, Innovate, and Grow391

13. Why Most Companies are Not Learning Organizations393
 How to safely and objectively learn from failures and successes

14. Innovation and Organic Growth in High Performing Companies433
 Fourteen client companies with the right culture for innovation and organic growth

15. Conclusion: Putting It All Together.....457
 Seven steps to implanting the right leadership and culture

About James D. Hlavacek, Ph.D.....495

Index.....497